YouthCon 2020

This year's scholarship theme – Lasting Legacy, encourages young students to become knowledgeable of the issues within and beyond their community, to take actions that positively influence our society. Lasting Legacy means to leave a place better than you found it. Through the scholarship, we empower young people to be more aware and discover a new sense for giving back.

This year's YouthCon Scholarship first-place winner is Elizabeth Nguyen. Lizzie's winning idea is to collect gently used sports equipment and apparel for athletes in underserved areas across Northern Virginia by placing donation boxes at local community centers.

This fall, Lizzie will be attending James Madison University as a Dingledine-Bluestone Scholar. With plans to study kinesiology with a minor in pre-medicine, she hopes to pursue a career in medicine or public health policy to serve underrepresented patients.
